A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the said corporation.

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application.

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the Independence of the United States the 91st.

PAUL DILLINGHAM.

By the Governor, WM. P. DILLINGHAM, Secy of Civil and Military Affairs.

Rest.

I lay me down to sleep With little thought of care, Whether my waking find Me here or there.

A bowing, burdened head, Nor strong—all that is past; Unquestioning upon A loving breast.

My good right hand forgets Its cunning now— To march the very march I know not how.

I am not eager, bold, Nor strong—all that is past; I am ready not to do, At last, at last.

My half-day's work is done, And this is all my part; I give a patient God My patient heart:

And grasp his banner still, Though all its blue be dim; These stripes, no less than stars Lead after Him.

The above lines were found under the pillow of a soldier who was lying dead in a hospital near Port Royal, South Carolina.

The Story of a Pretty Widow.

HOW TO ENGINEER A CLAIM THROUGH CONGRESS.

[Washington Correspondence of the Cin. Times.]

Another widow lady has been pressing her claims before Congress, and has also been successful. Her name is Martha M. Jones, and she is the administratrix of Samuel J. Jones, her husband, who obtained a patent some years ago for an improvement in zinc paint, which patent his widow desires to have extended. She is possessed of indomitable perseverance, is good-looking, intelligent, and highly educated. She stated her own case to the House Committee on Patents, and the bill she was interested in passed the House, and went to the Senate. She knew if it was not attended to quickly it would go over to the next session, and perhaps might not be acted upon for a year or two. Consequently, on Wednesday afternoon she took a position in the marble room, and sending her card to various Senators succeeded in gaining an interview with each one, for as one would come out to converse with her she would request him to send out another, and in this way she stated her case to all personally.

She was a lady of winning ways, and worked upon the susceptibilities of the grave and dignified Senators till she succeeded in gaining all in her
